Principal

Dear Graduates,

This is always a difficult letter to write because it signifies that we've reached a milestone and some of us are moving on and may never cross paths again. Let me just say how proud I am of you. You would not be reading this if you had not done your part.

You were vested in this process that has you here today. I want you to appreciate how powerful your actions can be and how you are truly responsible for earning the title of "graduate." You did not arrive here by accident. Everything that you have worked for in the last four years has moved you to this point.

Let this pivotal time in your life always remind you of how much you are an architect of your own destiny. Be the captain of your ship. Make your life happen; don't let life happen to you. It's an exciting time for you. Your whole life lies before you like a road not yet travelled. Be a responsible driver and always be mindful of where you're going.

I hope that the four years spent at Arts High School prepared you for the next phase of your life. In fact, I know that it did. This is the place that allowed you to be you, that nurtured your creativity, that allowed you to feed your soul and thrive as an artist. Do not forget where you came from because it will strengthen you in your weakest moments and sustain you. Live the life that your family, school community, and you can be proud of. May you have the life you always dreamed.

Congratulations!

Your Principal,

Ricardo Pedro

Class of 2016,

Allow me to reintroduce myself. My name is J-A-I-O: a name that came from my days in the studio. Driven by my music and willingness to improve it, I found myself at Arts High ready to Touch the Sky. It was all a dream, chasing passions instead of c.r.e.a.m., attending a school that turned my visions to reality. While on the keys and mixer, I was joined by J. Stamper. Before Leeway, we gave ya'll Green and Gray. Fast forward, I'm a junior, avid dream pursuer.

Surrounded by the hustle, all my boys getting grass. Chaz with the bags, 'Reek with the toons, Jaio with the snacks with Jon on the tunes. Crew of entrepreneurs; you won't say you never knew us. Family came through for NYU and now my music IQ is eight more than 92. Blessed and Highly Favored, selling dreams and making all the bangers, DC onto something greater, watch out for the crew. (Follow me on IG at jaioproductions for all the music updates.) Now we're the class of 2020, call us visionaries. Far from ordinary, we make first class secondary 'cause passion backed by action brings the cash without asking. Try to kill our dreams, through lead bullets and lead water, but they can't stop us, opposition makes us stronger. As we take this final bow, the show has just begun. Take our action as your doctrine as we show you how it's done.

Drama Major

Dear Self,

If you're reading this, it must be graduation day! You'll probably start off by reminiscing on those questionable crushes or that unflattering haircut you had, but it was cool "cause you could rock it." You'll laugh at that one time Ms. Anglin told you to "handle your scandal" the day after you pulled an all-nighter completing her project even though it wasn't due till next class, because it's funny now. Really, really, Funny! You'll recall your first kiss and joke about the other secret locations your friends went to receive theirs (sub-basement sips tea). It'll feel like yesterday when you walk through those doors for the final time and look around at all the empty lockers. You'll gather with classmates, those who you lost contact with and those who always stood by your side and realize that in some hours life as you know it will change. So before you sit down to enjoy the ceremony, make sure you take time to appreciate the lifetime of memories you made in those halls. Thank your teachers, the ones who left, the ones who did a split at parent teacher night, the ones that taught you how 2 right gud, and even the ones that evoked the occasional nervous twitch in your left eye, because when you're in your first college class, you'll feel grateful for all the work they made you do. Thank your beautiful family who will be on the bleachers crying dramatically like in a scene of your mother's favorite telenovela because raising a teen is no piece of cake. Then, scan the room one last time, and thank your friends. The ones that got you through your first heartbreak and made sure you were okay. The ones that made you laugh uncontrollably, stayed up on the phone with you for hours speaking about absolutely nothing, and the ones you have an infinite amount of insiders with. After you receive your diploma thank yourself for all your hard work, the sleepless nights you had to endure, and understand that you will make yourself proud. Remember, Know what you want. Stay Determined. Stay Humble... Go get 'em Jaguar.

Class of 2016

Class of 2016

Alexander Rosado-Torres, President

In August of 2012 I had one goal in mind and that was to be Class President. With a bunch of hard work and dedication, a little tears and a lot of sweat, I can happily say that I not only got the position, but did an amazing job. Working with my fellow graduates was a true pleasure and all that was accomplished could not have been possible if it weren't for the tremendous support the Executive Board received. I'd like to thank all of you, especially the litty board and litty advisors for making (my) senior year truly amazing. Always remember that you must not only chase after what you want, but also work towards it.

Rahmon Bateman, Treasurer

I, Rahmon C. Bateman, am solely honored to say I was the treasurer of the Class of 2016 of Arts High School. I was counting that schmoney from my throne. We, as a class, created magic from some rough situations for our fundraising events. Honestly, I ran like everything. I'm the president, you just thought it was Alex. Just kidding, the executive board was awesome, you guys are like my twisted, shady family. Special thanks to the seniors who were always willing to lend a helping hand. Remember to always count your coins!

Bianca De Paula, Fundraising Manager

Hello class of 2016!

We made it! Congrats to all of us for all our hard work and dedication. I'd like to give a big thank you to all the teachers who worked with us and gave us all the knowledge that is necessary to succeed in our futures. Also, a personal thank to my family for making me the woman I am today. It was fun working with my fellow executive board members and our amazing advisors! Ya'll were an incredible class and will be sorely missed. But, I'm afraid we must all now turn our heads from the past and look towards our futures. Nonetheless, the memories will still resonate within us when we most need them. And our dearest school Arts High will always be in our hearts.

Farewell class of 2016 and always remember to reach higher. Peace.

Executive Board

Keion Jackson, Vice President

As we move on to a new stage in life, remember that greatness in life is a practice not a status. Always work hard. It was a blessing being your Vice President.

I love you guys.

-Keion Jackson, Vocalist

Andrea David, Secretary

Class of 2016:

Thank you for allowing me to have the position of Class Secretary. It was truly fun while it lasted! I wish you all luck in all of your futures!

Ajanae Price, Fundraising Manager

Hello my fellow classmates! I know these four years have been long and rough but we finally made it! However, don't forget the memories and relationships with the people you have established here. I hope everyone conquers their dreams and succeeds in life. We are the CLASS OF 2016! We have made a mark here, now let's make one in the world. It has been a pleasure being your fundraising manager. Good luck, some of you might need it.

Ahlijah Gilmore-Tate - In Memoriam

Ahlijah was a very soft spoken, kind, strong spirited person. He had a strong determination to excel in music regardless of his countless physical challenges. He played the violin in his younger years and was encouraged sophomore year by his teacher, Mrs. Sweet, and supported by his Mom to play the cello. The sound of the cello in essence is what Ahlijah's calm and beautiful spirit embodied. Although he was very sick in the end, last November 2015 he was determined to play side by side with the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra musicians at NJPAC, in a concert of Copeland's Appalachian Spring alongside his friends. His perseverance of life, kind heart, and his genuine spirit is an inspiration to us all. He is loved and missed.

But death, death doesn't seem to know age.
Doesn't seem to know boundaries.
Tresspassed a temple so full of life. Invaded a city of hope, of strength.
Death, it came too soon, did not let your light touch the many lives it was meant to.
But I am thankful for the light you bestowed
on my shadow.
Even if it was for a short amount of time.
Death didn't understand the concept of too young.
Wanted to dim you away a bit too quickly.
Death didn't do such a good job though.
Because I am still blinded by the brightness of your essence.
Still in awe by the way you manage to live on.
Mesmerized by the way you're in every note,
carried on by the most alive thing that ever breathed. Carried on by music Every C string will not be just a low frequency. Every cello, every orchestra piece that dares bless eardrums, will not be a reminder of the cast away light, it will be the legacy of a light that still seeps through.

Oh the Places You'll Go

by Dr Seuss

"Congratulations! Today is your day.

You're off to Great Places! You're off and away!

You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes.

You can steer yourself any direction you choose.

You're on your own. And you know what you know.

And YOU are the person who'll decide where to go.

You'll look up and down streets. Look 'em over with care.

About some you will say, "I don't choose to go there."

With your heads full of brains and your shoes full of feet, you're too smart to go down, any not-so-good street.

And you may not find any you'll want to go down.

In that case, of course, you'll head straight out of town.

It's opener there in the wide open air,

Out there things can happen and frequently do
to people as brainy and footsy as you.

And when things start to happen, don't worry. Don't stew.

Just go right along. You'll start happening too.

OH! THE PLACES YOU'LL GO!

You'll be on your way up! You'll be seeing great sights!

You'll join the high fliers who soar to great heights!

You won't lag behind, because you'll have all the speed.

You'll pass the whole gang, and you'll soon take the lead.

Wherever you fly you'll be best of the best.

Wherever you go, you will top all the rest.

Except when you don't. Because sometimes, you won't.

You'll get mixed up of course, as you already know.

You'll get mixed up with so many strange birds as you go.

So be sure when you step.

Step with great care and great tact
and remember that Life's a Great Balancing Act.

Just never forget to be dexterous and deft.

And never mix up your right foot with your left.

And will you succeed?

Yes! You will indeed!

(98 and $\frac{3}{4}$ percent guaranteed.)

Today is your day!

Your mountain is waiting.

So, get on your way.

ALMA MATER

OH, ARTS HIGH WE SING TO YOU
TO THE GREEN AND GRAY WE'RE TRUE
YOUR PORTALS OF ART AND SONG,
WILL FOREVER MAKE YOU STRONG.
YOUR HALLS AND YOUR CLASSES HOLD
THE MEMORIES OF GREAT DEEDS.
AS THE YEARS GO MARCHING ON,
ONE BY ONE WE'LL SOON BE GONE,
THOUGH OUR HEARTS WILL BE WITH YOU,
(ARTS HIGH).

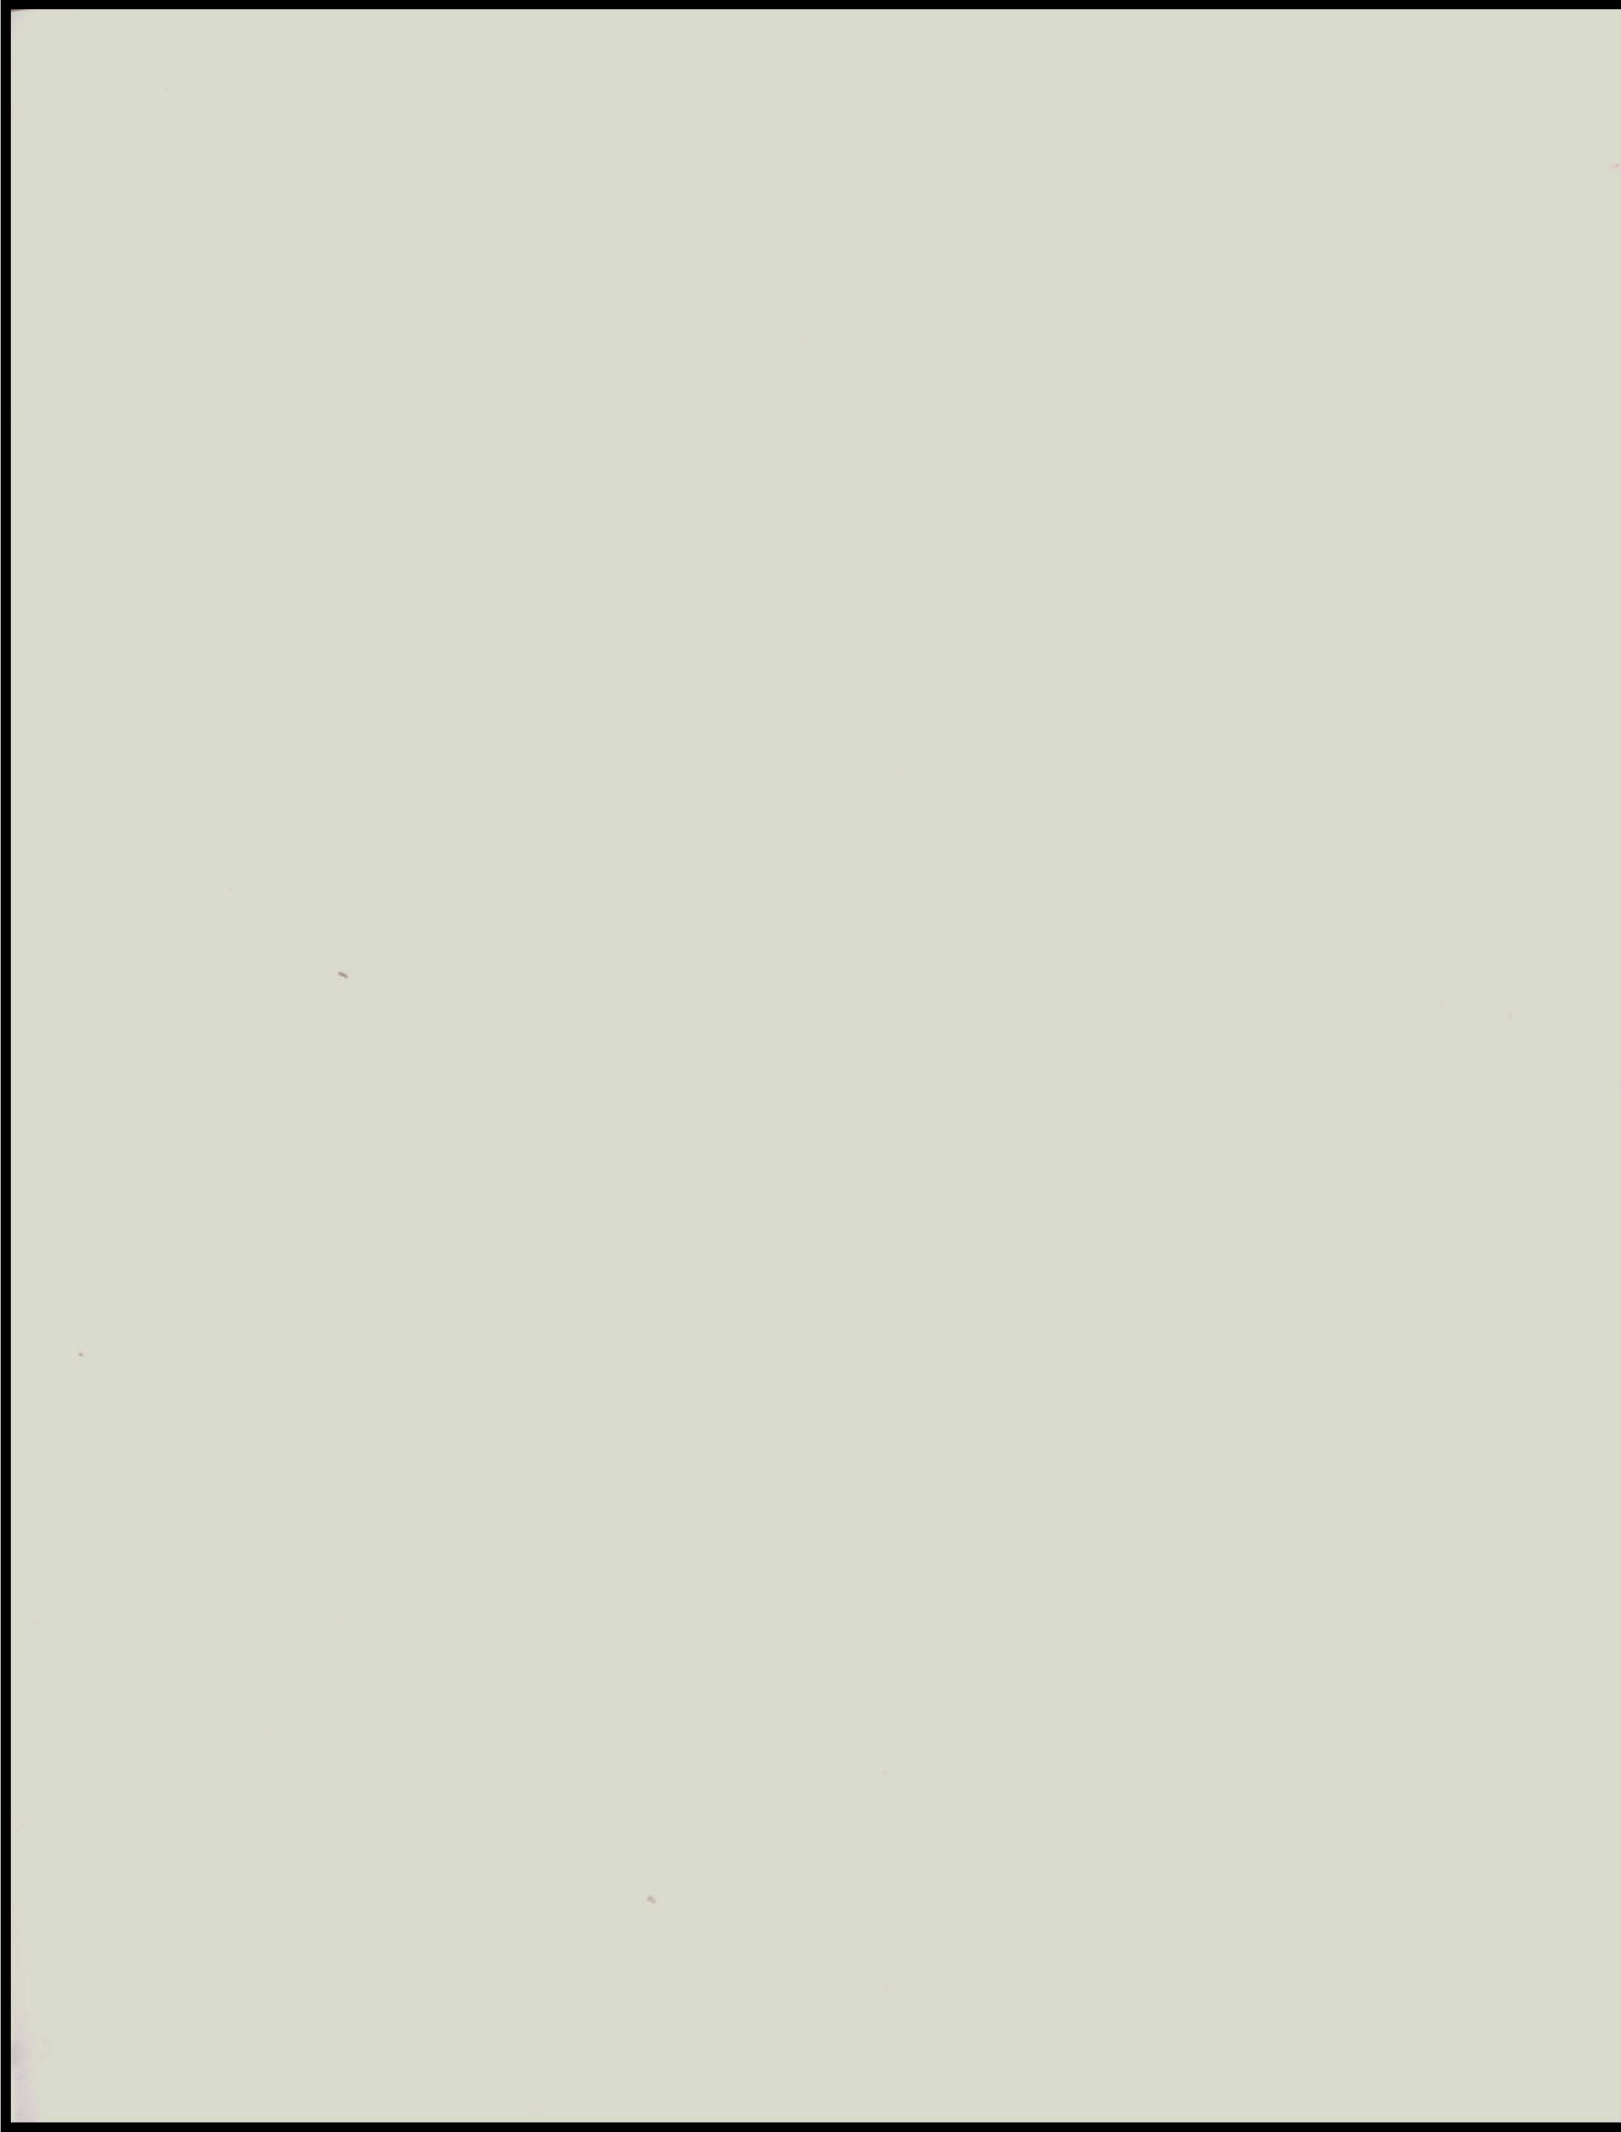

AS THE YEARS GO MARCHING ON,
ONE BY ONE WE'LL SOON BE GONE,
